

Welcome to Antioch!

The most important items in this bulletin are the orders of worship which you will find printed on the inside panels. These two outlines of this week's worship services will guide you in our corporate devotion to God. Please visit with us after the service. We are looking forward to getting to know you!

Worship at Antioch

The worship of the one true and living God is mankind's highest duty and greatest delight. Through Christ the living Word and by the call of the Holy Spirit, individual believers and churches approach God the Father in devotion and praise. The Father seeks those who will worship Him in Spirit and in truth. Do not content yourself with spectating, but rather join with the congregation in the singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Pray along with the elders, adding your "Amen" to the prayers. Give joyfully to God in the corporate offering as an act of worship and sanctified self-denial. Listen attentively to God speaking in and through the reading and preaching of His inspired Word. May God the Father receive an acceptable sacrifice of praise through Christ the Son as we actively worship Him by the Holy Spirit.

We believe that the children of believers are not only a heritage from the Lord and a special gift to parents, but also members of God's church. Therefore, we involve children as participants in worship. The children of believing parents are to be students of the Christian Faith – even baptized disciples – from infancy, and thus are not to be excluded from the assembling together of the saints. However, until such a time as they can examine themselves of their being in Christ, such members of the church are to refrain from taking the Lord's Supper. If you are visiting today and not accustomed to children in the worship service, we thank you for your understanding and patience. If you are here today with young children, please exercise courtesy by using our training room or our childcare space as needed.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Most merciful Father, we confess before Your divine majesty that we are miserable sinners conceived in sin. In us there is nothing good whereby we may plead Your favor. For the flesh rages against the Spirit, and we continually transgress Your holy commandments. We deserve nothing but Your just judgment: death and damnation. With grief we acknowledge our sins against You. We repent and request for Jesus Christ's sake, that You have mercy on us. Forgive us our sins, and increase Your Holy Spirit's influence on us so that, confessing from the heart our own unrighteousness, we may die to our lusts and sinful affections and bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to Your most blessed will. We ask this on the merits of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Substitute whom You have sent as an offering for our sins. We know that for His sake You will give all we ask in His name according to Your will. Your Spirit assures us that You are our merciful and loving Father, and nothing is able to remove Your heavenly grace and favor from us. In Christ's Name, Amen.
