Worship at Antioch

The worship of the one true and living God is mankind's highest duty and greatest delight. Through Christ the living Word and by the call of the Holy Spirit, individual believers and churches approach God the Father in devotion and praise. The Father seeks those who will worship Him in Spirit and in truth. Do not content yourself with spectating, but rather join with the congregation in the singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Pray along with the elders, adding your "Amen" to the prayers. Give joyfully to God in the corporate offering as an act of worship and sanctified self-denial. Listen attentively to God speaking in and through the reading and preaching of His inspired Word. May God the Father receive an acceptable sacrifice of praise through Christ the Son as we actively worship Him by the Holy Spirit.

We believe that the children of believers are not only a heritage from the Lord and a special gift to parents, but also members of God's church. Therefore, we involve children as participants in worship. The children of believing parents are to be students of the Christian Faith – even baptized disciples – from infancy, and thus are not to be excluded from the assembling together of the saints. However, until such a time as they can examine themselves of their being in Christ, such members of the church are to refrain from taking the Lord's Supper. If you are visiting today and not accustomed to children in the worship service, we thank you for your understanding and patience. If you are here today with young children, please exercise courtesy by using our training room or our childcare space as needed.

Confession of Sin

O Lord God, our heavenly Father, You are the source and fountainhead of life: Creator, Sustainer, Redeemer, and Life-Giving Spirit. You have manifested Your love for life in creating and sustaining all things by the power of Your Word. You have shown Your love for mankind in sending Your Son to live perfectly in our midst – bearing our nature, yet without sin – and appointing Him to die once for the sins of many. We confess that we have been neither faithful nor fruitful in our service to You. We plead the blood of Christ and the cross of Christ for the sake of Christ: Lord, pardon our sins. Cleanse us of all defilement and save us from all iniquity. Fill us anew with the Holy Spirit to walk worthily before You, loving one another with Christlike love, and earnestly seeking Your Kingdom and righteousness all our days. In Christ's Name, we pray, Amen.
