Worship at Antioch

The worship of the one true and living God is mankind's highest duty and greatest delight. Through Christ the living Word and by the call of the Holy Spirit, individual believers and churches approach God the Father in devotion and praise. The Father seeks those who will worship Him in Spirit and in truth. Do not content yourself with spectating, but rather join with the congregation in the singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Pray along with the elders, adding your "Amen" to the prayers. Give joyfully to God in the corporate offering as an act of worship and sanctified self-denial. Listen attentively to God speaking in and through the reading and preaching of His inspired Word. May God the Father receive an acceptable sacrifice of praise through Christ the Son as we actively worship Him by the Holy Spirit.

We believe that the children of believers are not only a heritage from the Lord and a special gift to parents, but also members of God's church. Therefore, we involve children as participants in worship. The children of believing parents are to be students of the Christian Faith – even baptized disciples – from infancy, and they are not to be excluded from the assembling together of the saints. However, until such a time as they can examine themselves of their being in Christ, such members of the church are to refrain from taking the Lord's Supper. If you are visiting today and not accustomed to children in the worship service, we thank you for your understanding and patience. If you are here today with young children, please exercise courtesy by using our training room or our childcare space as needed.

Confession of Sin

O God of our fathers, You are the Lord of the living and sovereign King over all creation. You do all things well, and so the world teems with life, and death is swallowed up in the victorious sacrifice of Christ our Savior and Redeemer. However, mankind is daily engaged in rebellion against Your good and life-giving purposes. We confess our own forgetfulness that life is a gift. Lord, forgive us for our lack of faith and for the doubt that we so quickly coddle and entertain in our minds. We come before You in Christ's Name, lamenting the violence and selfishness that leads to death. Lord, pardon us of all iniquity for our complicity in the wickedness of this perverse generation. Fill us with Your sanctifying Spirit, and strengthen us with new life in Christ to resist the temptations of the flesh, the schemes of the evil one, and the pressures of this world. In the Name of the risen Savior, we pray, Amen.

How was Christ exalted in His resurrection?

Christ was exalted in His resurrection, in that, not having seen corruption in death (of which it was not possible for Him to be held) and having the very same body in which He suffered, with the essential properties thereof (but without mortality and other common infirmities belonging to this life) really united to His soul, He rose again from the dead the third day by His own power; whereby He declared Himself to be the Son of God, to have satisfied divine justice, to have vanquished death, and him that had the power of it, and to be Lord of quick and dead: all which He did as a public person, the head of His church, for their justification, quickening in grace, support against enemies, and to assure them of their resurrection from the dead at the last day.
